Bittersweet's Music Vine Series Drums up Local Musical Acts

Whitehouse, OH...Bittersweet is teaming up with local musicians to offer Music Vine 2018, which includes live musical performances at Bittersweet Farms in Whitehouse. Every Friday from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., the Music Vine Series will host different musicians who will provide live entertainment to the individuals who work at Bittersweet Farms. Music Vine is open to all community members and it is free to attend. Community members are invited to bring a lunch, a friend, and some chairs and enjoy some great, local music on Bittersweet's beautiful 80-acre farm.

Steve Mentrek, Bittersweet's Day Program Director, says, "Music Vine 2018 is a fantastic opportunity for Bittersweet participants to enjoy some live music in a safe, sensory friendly setting. It also helps promote local musicians and opens the beautiful grounds up for the community to come enjoy some outdoor music. We are excited to host such a fun series."

During the Friday Music Vines, Bittersweet will be hosting a vendor stand for products produced by Bittersweet Gardens, Bittersweet Creative Arts, and Bittersweet Culinary. Items for sale will include fresh vegetables from the gardens, homemade cookies, shelf stable pesto and tomato chutney, and art items – mixed media pieces, paintings, fused glass, ceramics, and woven items.
