Gardens Team Highlights

This week, we're highlighting three dedicated members of our Tuesday CSA team! First up is Gino (pictured on p. 1), who harvested the fresh oregano for your shares this week! In addition to harvesting, we're busy transplanting seedlings, and Gino transplanted eggplant this week!

Next up is Matt (pictured above at right). A fun fact about Matt is that green onions are his absolute favorite veggie. This week he was thrilled to harvest the green onions for your shares!

Finally, Austin (pictured at bottom right) is one of the triple rinsing experts on our team. This week he harvested romaine lettuce for your shares and triple rinsed it so washing it at home is a breeze for you!

Next week, we'll be highlighting some of the participants who work in Gardens on Thursdays and make our second weekly CSA day possible...so stay tuned!
