Gardens Team Highlights

This week, we're excited to introduce you to a never-before-featured team member...Jerry (pictured above)! Jerry typically works in Horticulture and Creative Arts, but this week he lent a hand with watering the seedlings in Gardens! Thanks, Jerry!

Tom (pictured on p.1) harvested eggplant for our Small and Large shares and was delighted to show them off! He has also been helping with watering and tying up plants to maximize their growth. Gino (pictured at right, below) helped clean the radishes for the Medium and Large shares and harvest tomatoes for all share sizes. He has also been busy planting winter crops, as he loves to transplant seedlings.

Finally, Mike (pictured at right, above) has been contributing his wide range of skills all around the Farm this week! In Gardens, he has been mowing down the fields to cover for the winter in order to prevent weeds. We love to see him utilizing his Groundskeeping skills in this way. Finally, in Creative Arts, he has been monster busy creating festive Halloween seasonal ceramic pieces! He would love if you checked them out in the Market when you pick up your CSA share this week!
