Gardens Team Highlights

As always, this week's share is the result of collaboration and teamwork! Here are a few of the highlights:

Keerston (pictured on p. 1) harvested and prepared the fragrant cinnamon basil in today's share! Gino (pictured above) was also on herb duty, preparing and packaging the mint for you to enjoy this week.

Austin (pictured at right above) sorted, weighed, and bunched the chard for our Medium & Large shares. Also on the greens crew was Matt, who worked on quality control for the kale in our Medium & Large shares, checking each leaf for caterpillars. Sometimes the most important tasks aren't the most glamorous, but he was up for the job!

Finally, we want to recognize Darin (pictured at right below), who labeled the herb boxes in your share. Darin is a master at labeling and administrative work and we are grateful for his hard work behind the scenes!
